RE: License and Consent Agreement Dated September 30, 1983
As Amended "Agreement"

Dear Mr. Bleustein:

Based on your verbal agreement with Lincoln Lewis May 8, following is our understanding of what was a read:

1. The Agreement is hereby amended with effect as of June 1, 1986 to reflect that Brown & Williamson and its advertising agencies will no longer have an exclusive license to use the "Harley-Davidson" trademark in the fields of cigarette, cigar, pipe and tobacco advertising.

2. The expiration date of the Agreement shall be extended from September 30, 1986 to January 31, 1987.

3. After expiration of the Agreement, Brown & Williamson will not create, produce or place any advertising, promotional or display material which contains the "Harley-Davidson" trademark as a legible element in such material or which use Harley-Davidson motorcycles unless previously approved by Harley-Davidson in writing.

4. All advertising, promotional or display materials which were produced or placed in the field by Brown & Williamson prior to the expiration of the Agreement shall remain free for use by Brown & Williamson for such materials, normal advertising life cycle. Brown & Williamson is under no obligation to remove any permanent advertising, promotional or display materials placed in the field prior to the expiration of the Agreement.
